DEATH AND DYING

FACILITATED
BY LIANA CARBÓN
AND KATINA O'NEIL

JUNE 14-17: KAMLOOPS, BC • SEPT 20-23: SEATTLE, WA • $400

This workshop is for those people who wish to understand the death process better — for themselves and for those who either from a personal or professional viewpoint, wish to help others transitioning through death. We will explore alternate reality from various perspectives, including the “little death.” The training will include learning how to help a dying person cross over, as well as classic psychopomp work, including how to assist a person who has died to move to a more comfortable place.

IN THIS WORKSHOP YOU WILL:

- learn the journey beyond death through Spirit Flight
- discover Ordinary Language, Visible Language and Virtual Reality
- experience Elements of Creation
- help a person prepare for their own death
- explore the doorway into timelessness and the cosmology of where we travel after death
- face the “little smoke,” or as some refer to it, the “little death” in various formats

We invite you to join us in a quiet private setting where we will work together during the four days and send you off in the evening to deepen your work. Our space is limited to 24 participants so our work will be focused and personal. If you are feeling called to join us in this opportunity, please register soon.
